Action Comes As Complete Surprise To Politicians---Local Postmaster To Take Good Position With New Philadelphia Firm---Successor To Be Chosen By Civil Service Examination.

At 10:30 o'clock this morning C. A. Lamberson, for three years postmaster of Coshocton, dropped an official envelope into the mail carrying to J. C. Koons, first assistant postmaster general, in Washington, his resignation, effective March 1, 1918, or as much sooner than that as his successor can qualify.

Aside from the members of his own family, two men in Coshocton and one outside, Mr. Lamberson has kept for weeks his determination to get out of politics a profound secret. Only yesterday was Congressman W. A. Ashbrook acquainted with the fact.

As soon as he can be relieved of his official duties Mr. Lamberson will go to New Philadelphia where he becomes office manager for the Horger-Heldt Coal Co., one of the big mining concerns of Tuscarawas county. Negotiations with this company have been pending for several months and the offer to get out of the public service and into private commercial pursuits was so flattering that today's resignation was the result.

A CIVIL SERVICE JOB

Under the new federal statutes governing civil service the successor to Mr. Lamberson will have to take an examination which will doubtless be held some time in January. Under the new ruling no one is barred from this examination. It will be conceded by even politicians who will look with hungry eyes on the vacancy thus created, that if the examination is conducted without a bias a tremendous advantage will be held by several men now in the local office and who have devoted years of faithful service to the government and the patrons of the local office.

Mr. Lamberson's new connections are said to be most flattering in a pecuniary way. He will have charge of the entire office of the Horger-Heldt Co. It is also understood that some valuable concessions in the way of lease have been granted him and that this phase of the deal appealed to him so strongly as to bring about his resignation.

Mr. Lamberson is not unfamiliar with the coal business and his former relations with some of the heads of the concern with which he has affiliated led to the proposition which they made him. He will continue to hold his resi-

Hun Airmen Driven Off In Attempt To Bombard Camp Of U. S. Forces In France

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, DEC. 27—German airmen tried to bombard the American camp last night, but were driven away before they reached their destination.

This was the first time the Germans have made an air attack upon the Americans in force. The Germans approached the camp in the darkness of early evening, but were detected by the vigilant patrols.

The guarding aviators were swift to give battle and the Germans had to retire before their attack.

The men accepted the incident with the calmness of veterans.

"This is a belated Xmas gift from the Kaiser," declared one.

The only damage done was to the feelings of the doughboys who suddenly found all lights shut out, while they were eating their supper. Eating in the darkness was difficult.

A heavy snow fall had been succeeded by a bright moon which made an ideal night for an air raid. The Germans were not slow to take advantage of the opportunity.

A bugle call suddenly rang out sharply on the frosty night air, giving warning that danger was approaching in the air.

The men did not show any fear, but there was a whole lot of curiosity exhibited. Some emerged from the barracks with their steel helmets on and peered intently skyward in an effort to get a glimpse of the hostile visitors.

Across the snow machine gunners were scurrying to their positions, prepared to give the visitor a hot reception.

"I'd like to get a slant at Fritz," exclaimed one rawboned doughboy who was straining his eyes cloudward.

The attempted raid marked the end of the Xmas holiday festivities during which thousands of bags of mail from home had been distributed among the Americans.

City Council Holds Final Meet Of Year

The last meeting of the old council was held Wednesday evening at 7:30. Very little business of importance was taken up by the council as it is customary to leave the slate clean that the new members may not be hampered with work begun without their knowledge.

A certificate of indebtedness of the City of Coshocton in the amount of $1,500 to cover the cost of the Orange street paving contract was passed by council.

A certificate of indebtedness of the City of Coshocton in the amount of $2,000 was also passed by the council for the paving of North Twelfth street. No other business out of the routine was taken up.

In compliance with an old custom the old members meet with the new at the first meeting night in January and formally turn over their authority to those taking their seat for the first time. The new members are: Dr. W. R. Davis, O. A. Olinger, William McCoy, William Tish and George Brushwood. Councilmen Norris and Henke retain their seats.

JELLICOE IS SUCCEEDED BY VICE ADMIRAL

Sir Rossyln Weymess Is New First Sea Lord of the Admiralty in England.

JELLICOE STOOD HIGH WITH PEOPLE

British Shipping Losses of Past Week From Mines and Subs Falls Off.

LONDON, DEC. 27—Expressions of genuine regret were heard today over the official announcement that Admiral Sir R. Jellicoe has been succeeded as first sea lord of the admiralty by Vice Admiral Sir Rossyln Weymess. Admiral Jellicoe has long been connected with active operations of the grand fleet and stood high in public opinion, despite the dissatisfaction caused by recent raids of German destroyers in the North Sea. The Chronicle's naval correspondent, in writing on the subject today, said:

"The announcement that Jellicoe has vacated the post of first sea lord will be received by all with deep regret by all who know the services and high professional attainments of that distinguished officer."

The British shipping losses during past week from submarines and mines showed a slight decrease over the previous week. Eleven merchant ships of more than 1,600 tons and one fishing boat were lost.

Ohio Railway Men Solidly Back Wilson

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, DEC. 27—Railroad officials thruout Ohio today were sending telegrams to President Wilson pledging their earnest co-operation in operation of American railroads, taken over last night by proclamation. Sentiments of all the officials seemed to have been voiced by D. C. Moon, assistant to the vice president of the New York Central, in a statement made public this morning.

"Whatever the outcome may be, President Wilson and Secretary McAdoo may be sure of the heartiest support from every executive in the country," said the statement. "We are after a ten strike in the game of war and if the president deems it advisable to take over the roads we are behind him."

Biggest War Step Since Draft Law

Secretary McAdoo Takes Active Control of All Roads by Virtue of President's Proclamation Issued Late Wednesday — All Stockholders are Protected.

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, DEC. 27.—The greatest single step toward winning the war, with the exception of general conscription, was the verdict officials of Washington today placed on President Wilson's action in taking over the nation's railroads.

The president's statement accompanying his proclamation assuming control of the road was received as a master stroke.

In a single declaration he has assumed responsibility for practical operation of the properties and accepted the financial responsibility of the railroads. He has guaranteed their securities by declaring that the government will be as scrupulous in protecting them as the directors of the roads could be. And his outline of the recommendation he will make to congress to complete the program from the financial standpoint has disarmed, officials said today, those who have insisted that complete government control would ruin the thousands of stockholders thruout the nation.

Placing of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo in complete charge as dictator has coordinated completely the task of mobilizing the financial resources of the U. S. without danger.

Mr. McAdoo has made a complete success up to the present of the financing of the war. Now he will dovetail this work with national railroad finances. Prior to assuming his duties as secretary of the treasury, Mr. McAdoo had plenty of practical railroad experience. And he also will have the assistance in his new task of John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency, who himself had been expected to be named for the post up until last night.

Mr. McAdoo will outline his plans very shortly. As has already been pointed out in these dispatches he will utilize to the fullest extent the present personnel of the railroads. The committee of operating vice presidents who have accomplished great things in the last three weeks in untangling the congestion that had resulted from the indiscriminate use by all government departments of priority orders, will remain on the job. And for the first time these men will have a free hand to utilize all equipment everywhere and to run the roads as a single unit.

Simplified methods will be put into force right from the outset. All priority orders will be abolished. Hereafter a general plan of expediting freight will be followed which will make priority orders unnecessary except in certain instances. Hereafter

REMAINING MEN OF FIRST DRAFT NOT TO BE CALLED UNTIL PROBABLY MARCH 1

CAMP SHERMAN, DEC. 27—Officers of high rank here predicted today the six thousand drafted men on the first call who have not been called to training will not be taken from civilian life until after the 83rd division, National Army, now in training here leaves for France. More than enough men now are in training here to equip the division. Seasoned officers say it will be impossible for this division to get away before March 1, because of lack of sufficient training.

"The last quota under the first call is not here and I don't know when they will come," Major Gen. E. F. Glenn, commandant, told the board of governors of the Chillicothe Rotary Club.

"What can we do with them? Is the size of the camp to be doubled to care for them?"

To speed up preparation of the line regiments, division headquarters is assigning British and French officers to regiments for instruction in trench mortar firing, machine gun practice, sniping and the liaison between artillery and infantry.

The 200 or more soldiers who took "French leave" before Christmas are to be severely punished, Major B. M. McCooksey, assistant chief of staff, said.

DRESDEN SINKING FUND BOARD IS ACCUSED OF GRAVE IRREGULARITIES

COLUMBUS, DEC. 27—The charge that the sinking fund trustees of Dresden, Muskingum county, were guilty of irregularities is made in a report given publicity today by the state accounting bureau. This report covers an inspection of records of the village from June 17, 1916 to Nov. 17, 1917. The trustees are accused of improperly taking over $14,500 in bonds issued by the village when the trustees had no funds with which to buy them and disposing of the bonds when the funds were needed." State accounting bureau officials charged the village lost several hundred dollars because of this improper procedure.

The trustees are said to have turned back to the village par, plus accrued interest, for the bonds. Other villages receive a premium in addition to the interest, according to state officials.

Findings were returned against R. C. Clark, clerk of the Dresden board of public affairs, amounting to $475.84 for water collections, part of the proceeds of a bond sale, and moneys from the

ALLIES BELIEVE TEUTON OFFER OF PEACE SWEEPING

THE HAGUE, DEC. 27—Count Czernin, the Austrian foreign minister who announced at Brest-Litovsk that they are willing to make a general peace on the basis of no forced annexations nor indemnities, spoke by authority of both the kaiser and the emperor of Austria, according to information received here today. The belief is held in neutral diplomatic circles that the Austrian minister was virtually making a peace offer to the allies and that his remarks did not refer specifically to the terms of a separate peace with Russia.

JAPS DISCUSS NEW ATTITUDE TOWARD RUSS

TOKIO, DEC. 27—An important council, which was held to determine what attitude Japan should take in the event Russia concludes a separate peace with Germany has just come to an end at Osaka.

Those taking part in it were the emperor, Viscount Matono, the foreign secretary; Prince Yamagata, Gen. Mutsukeva and Viscount Salonji. The last named three are members of the Japanese war council.

MARRIED BY JUSTICE

E. G. Abbott, justice of the peace, married Miss Ina May Moore, of Newcomerstown and William Floyd Rice, of Isleta, at his office Wednesday.

NEW CASTLE MAN SEES WAR'S END BY APRIL FIRST

That the kaiser will sue for peace by January 1, 1918, that peace will be declared by April 1, 1918, and that all our soldier boys in service or in training camps will partake of their Christmas dinners in 1918 at their homes is the prophecy of Ebenezer Gorham, of New Castle, well known fortune teller in this section of the state.

It is said that the prophecy which was made about two weeks ago, is the only prophecy that Gorham has made concerning the duration of the war.

HUNS ACCEPT PEACE TERMS OF BOLSHEVIKI

STOCKHOLM, DEC. 27—A wireless message, evidently sent out by Petrograd was picked up today stating that the Central powers have accepted in principle the peace terms of the Bolsheviki.

The Austro-German envoys to the peace parley at Brest Litovsk were quoted as saying that Germany is "opposed to a war of conquest" and is willing to negotiate peace without any annexations nor indemnities if all the belligerents give the same pledge and guarantee not to exclude Germany from international agreement after the war.

Fighting has broken out at Irkutsk, Siberia, between the Bolsheviki and Loyal Cossacks.

WOMAN MURDERED AT COLUMBUS FORMERLY RESIDED NEAR HERE

The body of Mrs. Sarah E. Mulford, aged 77, formerly a resident of this county, was found behind the counter of her little grocery store at 1?5 Columbus avenue, Columbus, Wednesday, her head having been crushed by an 8 inch iron bar. Mrs. Mulford was born and raised in Muskingum county, just 10 miles from Coshocton. She had lived in Columbus for years, having made her home in a little room behind the grocery, which was her place of [illegible] [illegible].

It is thought that she was slugged by someone who entered the front door of her establishment, locked it behind him and turned out the lights before she was attacked and her money demanded.

At the instance of his wife, who saw the back door of the Mulford store open and no light burning, William Rohn, 770 Michigan avenue, hurried immediately to the rear of the grocery, hurried over to see what was the trouble. He found the little room and the store in a state of disorder and the mutilated body of the woman slumped behind the counter in the front room of the building.

Mrs. Mulford had been mistreated by her assailant and her clothing torn from the upper part of her body. Her head was closely wrapped in a comfort, an apron and a table cloth.

Two empty pocketbooks were found, one in her bedroom and another on the floor of the store. The cash drawer had been torn from the counter and emptied also. Another pocketbook containing $15 was found in her bedroom. It had evidently been overlooked by the thief.

Mrs. Mulford was last seen at 8 p. m., Tuesday. She was evidently attacked and killed late Tuesday night and had been dead for several hours when found, according to Coroner Berskopf, who viewed the body, which was taken in charge by Myers & Orr.

Mrs. Mulford has a sister, Mrs. A. T. Abbott, who lives at 771 Neil avenue. A sister-in-law, Mrs. Abram McKinney, also lives in Columbus.

The victim was the widow of Samuel Mulford, a Civil War veteran.

justice has been working on proposed new laws to present to congress as soon as it reconvenes after the holidays. These laws will not increase powers of agents of the department but will provide prison terms at hard labor instead of full board at internment camps for both men and women who plot against the U. "It is not fully realized that more stringent laws are needed to completely to crush this evil."

President Wilson made this emphatic in his recent address to congress.

SIX TYWNSHIPS EXCEED QUOTA OTHERS COMING

All members of the Red Cross are requested to keep their Service Flags in the window until February 1, and to have a light behind them on New Year's Eve, the same as on Christmas Eve.

The campaign for new members will continue until December 29, which will give everybody a chance to come in.

The work has been completed in Adam and Lafayette townships, both largely exceeding their quotas.

Other townships that have already gone "over the top" are Jefferson, Keene, Perry, Pike and Tuscarawas, but the work of soliciting is still going on in these.

Several other townships have made partial reports which are very encouraging, and as the good work there continues it is certain that they will make a good showing in the end.

Any persons who the solicitors have not been able to see can get a membership by calling at the Red Cross headquarters or at the office of the Ohio Service Co., where they can pay dues and receive a receipt and service flag. Their membership will be credited to the township in which they reside.

All solicitors are requested to continue their work until December 29. It is hoped that many entire families will join the Red Cross, and thereby become entitled to a white star to put in the center of the service flag, showing that it is a 100 percent home.

Remember, the money received by the Red Cross is devoted to the relief of distressed humanity, either in war or peace, but in the present emergency nearly all of it will go to the relief of the soldiers and sailors, who are or will be fighting our battles in humanity's cause.

Help make every American home a Red Cross home.

Very respectfully,

In case where a laxative is needed, Hood's Pills should be taken. They work in perfect harmony with Hood's Sarsaparilla and Peptiron, and are mild and efficient.

servation legislation. Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, is next in line with Oscar Underwood, of Alabama, former house leader, brings up the rear.

There was some discussion of suspending the seniority rules to permit the appointment of Senator Underwood, whose ability and legislative experience, it was pointed out, would fit him better than any other of the candidates for the position.

Should Smith accept the I. C. C. position, he would be compelled to vacate the immigration committee chairmanship. The next in rank on that committee is Senator Gore, who would decline it because of the fact that he holds the chairmanship of the agriculture committee. Germany Is Certain Of Winning War

AN ATLANTIC PORT, DEC. 27.—Germany is beginning to realize that the U. S. is going to throw its full strength into the world war, according to John Miller Larsen, a Chicago manufacturer who arrived here today. Shortly before he left Europe, Larsen said he and several friends went for an auto ride and accidentally drove into German territory. They were fired upon and arrested. Their explanations were refused and they were carried off to an internment camp at Flanniberg, where they were held four days before they were released. As Larsen talks German fluently he had many opportunities of talking with the officers.

While the Teutons belittled the value of America in the war before their men, in private conversation they said it will enable the allies to secure better terms at the peace table. Officials declared that Germany could never be beaten, even with all the world arrayed against her.

Coal Mined For Homes, Not Plants

COLUMBUS, O., DEC. 27.—Ohio mines today are mining coal only for domestic consumers and for public utilities and institutions. Officials of the federal fuel administration said this will continue pending decision at a conference of federal officials at Washington tomorrow as to what industrial concerns in this state will shut down in order that a two weeks' coal supply shall reach Ohio homes. A number of fuel administration officials are in favor of ordering closing down of all establishments not making or dealing in food and ammunition.

BORROWS A "FATHER" WHEN HE SEEKS LICENSE

(International News Service)

BARTLESVILLE, OKLA., DEC. 28.—C. O. Gray, twenty, of Choctaw, got a father, a girl and a marriage license, all in one day. Recently he applied to the district court clerk for a marriage license. Being only twenty, that official had to refuse the important paper.

Young Gray declared that both his parents were dead and he had rustled for himself since he was ten years old. He left the court determined to win out some way.

Later he returned with one "Mr. Gray," who said he was the father of the boy and was ready to give his consent to his "son" getting married. The clerk issued the license, and then remembered that young Gray had told him a short time before that both his parents were dead.

Investigators Are Back On Their Jobs

WASHINGTON, DEC. 27.—Congressional investigators were back on the job bright and early today to resume inquiries into the conduct of the war after the brief Christmas holiday. They expected to work continuously from now on to the reconvening of congress in an effort to lay their findings and recommendations before the main body early next month.

The death of Senator Newlands, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Committee, and the joint railroads committee, threw an element of uncertainty into the proceedings in the railroad investigation. The committee planned to designate an acting chairman to direct the probe until after the holidays.

Conditions in the American army in France were the subject of inquiry today by the senate military affairs committee. The committee has on hand as witnesses a number of general officers who have just returned from a visit to the front. They are to be interrogated about the practice of obtaining machine guns and artillery from the French government, because of the war department's inability to supply them. It was said the investigation might continue another month. Temporarily sidetracking its efforts to fix the blame for the sugar scarcity, the senate manufacturers sub-committee today took up the coal shortage. Dr. Harry A. Garfield, fuel administrator, was scheduled to appear as the first witness.

MEXICAN BANDITS KILL AMERICAN MAIL DRIVER

VALENTINE, TEX., DEC. 27.—Attachments of American troops are today pursuing Mexican bandits who hanged and cut the throat of Michael Welch, driver of a mail stage, and shot and killed two Mexican-American passengers aboard the stage at Candelaria. Reports that the troops had overtaken the bandits and that fighting ensued were brot here by men who brot the body of Welch to this city.

The troops took up the trail of the bandits within 30 minutes after Welch had been killed. It was believed the soldiers would easily overtake the bandits who were burdened by loot taken from the L. C. Brit store at Candelaria. No definite word of the result of the pursuing expedition, however, has been received. Welch was taken from the stage and hanged.

After killing Welch the bandits were said to take all available horses and loaded them with loot.

Red Cross Christmas Seal Sales Have $3,000,000 Goal This Year

By T. N. SANDIFER

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, DEC. 26.—From a sale of $3,000 to sales of $3,000,000 is the history from start to present of that little Red Cross Christmas seal which you casually stick on all your mail this time of the year.

Now, with all the world seared in the flames of war, the history of the progress of Red Cross Christmas seals is particularly interesting.

Originating in Norway, where the proceeds were used to fight disease, the idea was imported to this country by Miss Emily P. Bissell, of Wilmington, Del., a well-known social worker. In 1907 Miss Bissell launched the first campaign, with the object of providing funds to fight tuberculosis and other disease.

The seals looked like Christmas, the plan back of them was the Christmas spirit, and people grasped the idea with delight. They looked good on Christmas mail, and they did good. That year $3,000 was raised.

The American Red Cross was asked to take over the work. After some hesitation, they did so. In 1908, $125,000 worth of the little stickers were sold. It became a national institution. So successful was the idea, and so useful the funds in fighting tuberculosis, that the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis was asked to adopt the work.

Last year saw 105,000,000 stamps sold. The total sales for nine years reached $4,300,000.

This year 300,000,000 stamps is the goal. The Red Cross, working with the National Association, hopes to raise $3,000,000.

Most of this money is used in the respective localities where it is raised, so that 90 per cent of the money remains in the community where it was raised. The Red Cross takes 10 per cent to cover actual expenses of the campaign.

NO ESCAPE FROM CONSCRIPTION BY CROSSING CANADIAN BORDER

IN BRITISH RECRUITING MISSION WHEN APPLICANT IS AN AMERICAN

The beckoning finger of the Canadian recruiting sergeant in depots throughout the United States of the British Canadian Recruiting Mission will probably become the finger of inevitable fate by the significant treaties which Secretary of State Lansing has indicated are in readiness for this Congress.

"Be loyal to your flag, in whatever country you may be," the pictured British sergeant seems to say. Secretary Lansing's treaties will make it impossible for British or Canadian residents in "the States" to escape doing their duty. Conscription will get them just as surely as it is getting their countrymen in their own lands. Already reciprocal recruiting has been done—in the Canadian depots for the United States army and vice versa.

"The dispatches from Washington regarding the impending treaty forecasts a round-up of aliens by British, French and Italian officers for service under their own flag," said Col. J. S. Dennis, second in command of the British Canadian Recruiting Mission. "A great many foreigners resident in the United States have hastened to file their declarations of intention to become American citizens, in many instances with the express purpose of escaping from military service under their own flag.

"In Great Britain and Canada there are Americans of military age, and the proposed conventions between the two countries will doubtless provide the regulation under which these men can be drafted for service in the countries of their residence by the Governments to which they owe allegiance.

"Thanks to the United States draft registration of ten million men our Mission now has the names and addresses of thousands of Britons and Canadians and has made a special written appeal to them to come forward and offer their services. It is hoped that a large number will respond and enable much needed drafts of men to be sent forward from the United States to re-enforce the British and Canadian armies.

"The Mission has established recruiting depots all through the country to give Britishers and Canadians an opportunity to volunteer for service through these depots. Some fourteen thousand men have been enlisted and sent forward to the British and Canadian armies."

(International News Service)

KANSAS CITY, MO., DEC. 26.—Ten years ago Joseph Bartles, of Bartlesville, often stopped at the Baltimore Hotel while on business in this city. Among the youths who served him was Alvin J. Hawkins, a page, who took a liking to the Oklahoma man.

When the hotel man opened the paper he found a $500 Liberty Bond.

COSOOCTONIANS AT SPRINGFIELD WERE HEATLESS

Arthur Moore, formerly of this city and now located in Springfield, is spending a part of the holiday season with relatives in this city.

He says conditions arising out of the coal shortage which has prevailed in cities in the western part of the state for the last six weeks, are almost unbelievable. The biggest and most influential manufacturers in these cities were unable to secure enough coal to keep their factories running and as a result concerns employing thousands of men and rushed with orders were compelled to shut down.

There was considerable suffering everywhere among private consumers. In Springfield a big coal pile belonging to the Big Four Railway and which had been on fire for some time, was seized by the people and hauled away.

Mr. Moore, thru local connections, was enabled to secure an entire car of Coshocton county coal. When it arrived he determined to divide it among Coshocton county people living in Springfield. When it got noised around that he was the fortunate possessor of a whole car of coal so many people claimed to have once lived in Coshocton that he was led to believe that half the people in the city were of Coshocton county origin.

Schools churches and public buildings of all kinds were caught and for weeks there was no relief. Recently conditions have been improved and there is much less suffering among the poor.

GEORGE M. COHAN

Wild freaks of action! Wierd tangling of circumstances! Sudden and dynamic charges of humor! These elements, and considerable more, make George M. Cohan's new Artcraft picture, "Seven Keys to Baldpate," the most novel film of the year. When it was produced on the stage by George M., it defied the critics and won their most favorable reviews. It bewildered the audience and left them proclaiming it the most remarkable farce ever staged. It was heralded as the greatest novelty of the theatre and readily accepted as such wherever it appeared. On the screen of the Mystic theatre, Friday and Saturday, this famous theatrical hit will disclose not only the unusual mystery, humor and thrills displayed by the original play but also the inimitable George M. Cohan himself, plus the wide scope of the cinema which was denied its stage presentation.

If you want these great plays to continue showing in Coshocton you must lend your patronage as such high class pictures cannot be brought here at constant loss. In other towns where Artcraft Paramount pictures are shown the theatres are always crowded showing that the people appreciate good, clean shows.

HOW THE STORY SPREADS

So many false reports have been spread concerning the ultimate disposition of the materials furnished the Red Cross, that officers are beside themselves answering the questions of inquirers. All of the reports evidently are the work of enemies of America in the war and have about as much basis as is indicated in the following adaptation.

"Absolute knowledge have I none.
But my aunt's washerwoman's son
Heard a policeman on his beat
Say to a laborer on the street
That he had a letter just last week,
Written in the finest Greek,
From a Chinese Coolie in Timbuctoo,
Who said the niggers in Cuba knew
Of a colored man in a Texas town
Who got it straight from a circus clown
That a man in Klonkide heard the news
From a gang of South American Jews
About somebody in Bamboo
Who heard a man who claimed he knew
Of a swell society female rake
Whose mother-in-law will undertake
To prove that her husband's sister's niece
Has stated in a printed piece
That her son knows a boy named Charley Ross
Who bot the sweater from the Red Cross.

PEOPLE SEEK OUT WORKERS OF RED CROSS

Additional reports from several townships over the county show that the Christmas Membership Drive of the Red Cross is going on actively and successfully and that the county as a whole will go well "over the top." Many people who did not understand the matter sufficiently when the solicitors first called are now calling on the solicitors voluntarily taking membership in the Red Cross. Besides wanting to be included among the members of the great American army of civilian home workers, they are anxious to contribute their dollar in membership dues so it will go to the relief of distressed humanity.

The extension of the time for ending the campaign to December 19, affords opportunity for all to join, and it is hoped that nearly every family in Coshocton county will take membership so they can display the service flag in the window from now until February 1. The great voluntary organization of solicitors has worked diligently and effectively throut the campaign, notwithstanding the bad roads and disagreeable weather conditions, and they are entitled to unstinted praise for their sacrifices of time and comfort. The public is requested to make their task as easy as possible by taking membership at first opportunity.

Please pass the word along the line that every member of the Red Cross is requested to wear the button and keep the service flag in the window until February 1, placing a light behind it on New Year's Eve.

Very respectfully,

A BRIGHT SPOT IN THE DAY'S NEWS

Mrs. Margherita Tennula, Italian, of Sandusky, and Dominico Tramandona, her fiance, were told by Squire Fred Schlessman it simply could not be done.

And that was just before he almost had "gone and done it."

'Twas this way. Margherita wanted to save the price of a marriage license.

So she just dug up the one used when she married her first first husband, now dead.

The woman was very disappointed when told that a license could not be used more than once. She said she wanted to cut down the cost of getting married.

"I came mighty near tying the knot before finding out the credentials were not o. k.," said Schlessman.

The couple promised to get a new license.

GAVE COMMAND FOR FIRST SHOT AT KAISER

(International News Service)

ROODHOUSE, Ill., DEC. 27.—Central Illinois has the distinction of giving to Uncle Sam the man who ordered the first American shell fired against the Germans in France. He is Major John R. Starkey, of this city. And it was an Irish "Sammie" from Illinois who fired the first shot. Major Starkey designated the gun and the gunner who sent the first historic shrapnel at the Kaiser.

Word to this effect has been received here by relatives in a letter from the hero. When the war broke out the Major was detailed to General John J. Pershing's command and is now serving with "Black Jack" "over there."

NINNICH IS MATCHED WITH DETROIT MIDDLEWEIGHT AT LOCAL THEATRE JANUARY 4

When Billy Ninnich, Coshocton's middle-weight wrestler again goes to the mat in the interest of the sport in Coshocton his opponent will be Wildcat Cory Fleming, of Detroit, Mich., one of the toughest middle-weights in America. Fleming comes to Coshocton on Friday, January 4, for the match, which will be staged at the Sixth Street Theater at 8:15 that evening. Both wrestlers will weigh in at 158 pounds.

Two preliminaries are being arranged for and no disappointment is anticipated in these two events. The referee will be announced not later than Wednesday of next week, and arrangements will be completed at an early date for a thrilling exhibition.

Ninnich will no doubt prove a good drawing card in his next match here, having baffled every effort of Henry Irslinger, middleweight champion of the world, to pin him to the mat in a one-hour session here several days ago.

all trains will move full wherever possible and there will be no continuation of existing conditions where certain roads are completely congested while others are moving train after train of empties with no freight furnished them.

The selection of McAdoo as railroad director also resulted today in very prominent discussion of the plan for national operation of railroads on a regional district basis, proposed by Frank A. Vanderlip. Appearing recently as an expert witness before the I. C. C., Mr. Vanderlip, who is president of the National City Bank of New York, and in charge for the treasury of the War Savings Stamp campaign, outlined a plan for operating the railroads modelled after the federal reserve system of banks.

He proposed that the country be divided into districts and that all the railroads in each district be operated as a single system. The systems should be governed by boards, made up of experienced railroad executives, of representatives of organized labor and of representatives of the federal government he said.

At the time Mr. Vanderlip outlined his plan the I. C. C. had not recommended to congress the taking over of the railroads. It is understood, now, however, that Mr. Vanderlip plan has been very carefully studied by President Wilson and Secretary McAdoo and that it or some modification of it, will be adopted.

The plan further contemplates issue of bonds by the various regional railroad systems. While Mr. Vanderlip did not elaborate on this angle of the plan he suggested that the sum of all indebtedness outstanding, of all the roads in each system be pooled and a new issue put out consolidating the lot and providing additional capital. These refunding government bonds would be underwritten by the treasury and their sale would end the financial difficulties of the roads. In addition to general discussion of this plan there was much speculation today as to what will become of the I. C. C. With the government in charge of the railroads the job of regulating railroad operation apparently will be taken out from under the commission, leaving that body stranded.

The taking over of the railroads by the president was heralded today as the full dawn of the government ownership era. That the railroads will remain in government control after the war is a distinct possibility.

Railroad presidents and operating executives were hurrying to Washington today from all over the country. Many already were here. They had been sent for by Secretary McAdoo to confer with him on ways and means.

While the secretary actually will not take over the roads until noon tomorrow, to all intents and purposes he already was in control today.

From sources close to the secretary it was made plain that he had no radical shakeups in mind. On the other hand he proposes to utilize officials in their present positions. His immediate job is to speed up operations and this it was stated, can be done.

Representatives of the railroad brothers were in the city today ready for their conference this afternoon with the president. They were well pleased with this latest development and it was expected that after they had talked with the president they will issue a statement indicating their position. It was understood that several demands for wage increases would be settled in a manner satisfactory to all concerned.

The most significant statement included by the president in the official explanation accompanying the taking over of the roads was that in which he outlined his congressional program as follows:

"Immediately upon reassembling of congress I shall recommend that these definite guarantees be given: First of course, that the railway property will be maintained during the period of federal control in as good repair and as complete equipment, as when taken over by the government, and second, that the roads shall receive a net operating income equal in each case to the average net income of the three years preceding June 30, 1917, and I am entirely confident that the congress will be disposed in this case, as in others, to see that justice is done and full security assured to the owners and creditors of the great system which the government must now use under its own direction or else suffer embarrassment."

Senators and representatives who would talk at all, approved the statement. They expressed the belief that there will be very little opposition from the roads. Some eof the latter can be expected to object because they have all along insisted that it would be a mistake for the government to take the roads over. But the majority will be well satisfied inasmuch as the average of earnings to be guaranteed takes in the fat year of 1916, to offset leanness of 1914 and part of the present year.

The railroads of the nation under the president's plan will be guaranteed some $947,261,471, according to officials of fthe I. C. C. This is the net operating income of the roads on the average basis proposed between the gross revenue remaining after disbursing all operating expenses and taxes. One of the compelling problems, of course, will be taking care of the new financing which may be needed. This is a matter that the president has left entirely to Secretary McAdoo's discretion and he can be depended on to dispose of it only as the problems individually present themselves.

UNCOVERS 35 GALLONS OF GASOLINE—PAGE JOHN D.

KANSAS CITY, MO., DEC. 27.—An "oil well," or rather a "gasoline well," was discovered by a laborer in excavating for a sidewalk at a school building here. The laborer uncovered a tank found to contain thirty-five gallons of gasoline of an extra fine grade.

The place is the former residence of Colonel C. F. Morris, former president of the Kansas City Stockyards, but now a resident of Boston. Just how long the gasoline has been under ground is unknown. Age had turned the gasoline to a light yellowish color.

SEVEN YOUNG GUINEAS HATCHED FROM EGGS FOUND INSIDE OF SNAKE

(International News Service)

MOULTRIE, GA., DEC. 27.—Seven young guineas, all christened "Jonah," because they spent part of their prenatal period in the stomach of a reptile without harm to themselves or the snake, until the latter was unhappily cut open, are the proud possession of L. D. Alford, of Colquitt county.

While picking cotton early this Fall, Mr. Alford noticed a snake lying in a cotton row in a torpid state with its body considerable swollen. Killing the snake and cutting it open, Alford found seven guinea eggs inside of it, which had recently been stolen from the nest of a setting hen. Placing the eggs under a setting hen in his nearby barn, Mr. Alford was overjoyed a few days later to find seven little guineas hatched out and happy.

PARIS PAPER DECLARES LA FOLLETTE IS SPEED MERCHANT IN ORATORY

(International News Service)

PARIS, DEC. 27.—(By mail).—Commenting on the rapidity of speech, a Paris daily declares that the record for parliamentarians is held by Senator La Follette, with 160 words a minute, which surpasses the speed of France's best orator, M. Rene Viviani, former Minister of Justice.

"Speaking on pacificism," asserts the journal, "Senator La Follette delivered 160 words a minute, or two words and one syllable of a third in a second. M. Viviani never spoke at a rate greater than 150 words a minute, while former Premier Briand attained a velocity of 110.

"As for M. Clemenceau, it is well known that his slow method of speaking will probably not exceed 100 or 120 words, but what he says is distinctly worth while."

WASHING WAR LINEN

The way of democracies is again exemplified in the passion for public investigations that has swept over Washington with the assembling of congress. Everything is to be probed. All the important departments connected with our war preparations are under fire.

Congress is eagerly engaged in dragging to light the programs and performances of the war and navy departments, the food and fuel administration and various other public bodies and individuals charged with spending our billions or shaping our policies or controlling our industries and resources and mode of life. And if there is any incompetency found, any blundering, any folly, any crookedness or scandal, be sure it will be brot to light.

Quite aside from any question of the wisdom of such procedure at this moment, it may be remarked that this is the inveterate way of democracies, and the thing which, more than anything else perhaps, differentiates them from the type of government represented by our enemies. Free nations persist in washing their linen in public. Whether the linen is soiled much or little is of no consequence. It is cleaned in public just the same, and hung on the line for all the world to see and criticize. England has done the same thing over and over in the last three years, and indeed is engaged in certain disagreeable laundry work at this very time. France is notorious for splashing suds about and filling the world's nostrils with unsavory steam.

But have you read of any public inquiries into war policies and practices made by the congresses of Berlin or Vienna or Budapest or Sofia or Constantinople? Have you seen any departmental exposes set forth in any newspaper of any of the Central Powers for all mankind to read? Hardly! Whatever inquisitions may have taken place in those happy hunting grounds of military absolutism have been conducted by one man, or one little group of men, in strict secrecy. The public there is not permitted to hear of blunders or crimes in high places.

With all due respect to the orderly fashion in which Germany and Alstria handle such matters, and all due recognition of the perils attending our practice—perils arising from partisanship, narrow-mindedness and personal passion—we prefer our own way. Better wash war linen in public than not wash it at all.

AUSTRIAN PACIFISM

Austria-Hungary would like to quit fighting, right now. And that is perfectly natural and understandable.

Austria has possession, at the moment, of about everything she wanted when she precipitated the war. She really has more than she expected to get in the way of territory. Like a winner in a poker game, after a night's vigil, she thinks it's a good time to stop.

Also, Austria is utterly weary of the war, near exhaustion in man power and material resources, bankrupt physically and low in morale.

Continuance of the war means, immediately, lending tired troops to Germany for use on the western front, and more distantly, facing America on the battle line, and possibly a revived and belligerent Russia. It isn't a cheerful prospect. She'd willingly give up some of her stolen territory if everybody would agree to let her alone.

But Austria can't quit. Bull-dozing Germany won't let her, and the Allies won't let her. She's finding, to her cost, that it's a heap harder to stop a war than to start one.

Maybe by the time congress gets all its investigations completed and classified and codified and indexed and shelved the war will be over, but we don't believe it can then be said that the investigations helped win it.

The Russians are fast leaving our western civilization. Going down the street in Petrograd now is almost as exciting as a similar trip would have been in East St. Louis last summer.

Every one is doing their share toward winning the war. One of the biggest agencies in the struggle is the Red Cross and that is essentially a woman's organization.

New York Day-By-Day
By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, DEC. 27—
He's a wan little fellow
With a pinched face
And wide questioning eyes
And one arm is withered
And he walks with a limp
And he told me one day
He must be the boy
That God forgot
But of course
That isn't true
Some day he will understand
Like most of us
Are beginning to understand.
That back of the veil
We cannot pierce
Is Omnipotent Love
Guarding and guiding
For a happier day
But my little friend
Cannot grasp it just now
So he tries to be brave
And rarely complains
He tells me his secrets
His boyish young hopes.
When we got together
For long walks in the park
And when we come to the place
Where the boys are at play.
He always looks wistful.
And I hurry him by
For he cannot romp
Like the other lads.
And a week before Christmas
We went to a great store
And he saw rows and rows
Of wonderful gifts.
And he gripped my hand
And bright spots came
Into his ashen cheeks
But not once did he say
"I'd like to have that"
He never seemed to feel
That such things were for him
And so I took him home
And from his little seat
In the window
He waved all the way
Until I reached my car.
I'm rather selfish slob.
And love creature comforts
But the fur coat I wanted
Goes to some one else.
And my little friend.
Has had a Christmas
That is a Christmas
And it is a bit strange
But I do not remember
When Christmas.
Has meant so much to me.

SHELL-SHOCK CURE FOUND IN COLOR
(International News Service)

LONDON, ENG., DEC. 27.—The psychology of color has been demonstrated as a cure for certain cases of shell-shock and neurological diseases in the McCaul Hospital for Officers here this week.

The most efficacious coloring idea is that which impresses upon the subconscious being of the patient a sense of the delights of springtime.

Cheery yellow walls, ornament blue ceilings, judicious use of the violet-gay flowered coverlets on the beds and certain select perfumes wafting thru the ward have been producing marvelous effects. The colors blend into ineffable shades which compel the patient to let his mind rest with pleasure on the beauty of color surrounding him and the ecstacy of perfume assailing his sense of smell.

LAMBERSON

dence here, but will spend practically all of his time in Tuscarawas county.

SUCCEEDS S. M. SNYDER

Mr. Lamberson is the successor in the post office of S. M. Snyder and his commission bears date of February 13, 1915. Owing to clerical errors in Washington, however, he did not actually take charge of the local office until March 9, 1915.

In the almost three years he has had charge of the local office he has made an enviable reputation as an executive head. He leaves behind him a strong organization and the manner in which his reports have been prepared has won him the repeated approval of the department heads in Washington.

That his resignation was a political boon to Representative Ashbrook and will be to local politicians is easily surmised. He had shrewd and efficient opposition in local Democratic circles when he set out to land the job of postmaster, but his own experience and astuteness as a politician together with that of his backers was too much for the opposition.

A FAT POLITICAL PLUM

According to the rules of the department he would have had approximately two more years as postmaster which is regarded in many respects by politicians in both parties as the fattest political plum in the county.

It pays at present $3,100 a year, the salary being based on the business done annually by the office. That there will be a desperate scramble for the place is taken for granted, altho the civil service examination puts a phase on the situation which is not only new, but in the end will be at least puzzling to politicians who formerly would have had a look in on the job.

L. LESLIE COMING ON SHORT FURLOUGH

Landry Leslie, who enlisted in the navy last May, will arrive in Coshocton Saturday to spend a five days' furlough at the home of his mother, Mrs. Eva Leslie, on Locust street. This will be his first visit home since his enlistment.

Leslie is stationed on the U. S. S. Shawmut, in Boston harbor.

CHILI SUPPER

A chili con carne supper will be served in the basement of the Warsaw bank building Saturday evening by the King's Daughters of the M. E. Church. The proceeds will be given to the Warsaw branch of the Red Cross.

George Baumgardner, of South Ninth street, has gone to Kimbolton, having been called there on account of the serious illness of his brother, B. D. Baumgardner.

Letters from the BOYS

CAMP SHERMAN.
Mr. and Mrs J P Myers,
31 Found Street, Newark, O
Dear Aunt and Uncle,

Your good letters reached me last week and I am glad to know that you pulled thru the moving stunt in good shape and that you like your new home. It seems quite strange to think of you now living in little old Newark.

This finds me well with lost of things to keep me hustling and busy every day Our regiment has returned from Camp Perry and our Company it came last Tuesday That winter day you were writing me the letters we were tearing down the camp preparing to come home to Camp Sherman.

The blizzard and cold wave that struck us hit us pretty hard for old Lake Erie sure did send some cold breezes across the plains of Camp Perry But at that none of our tents blew over, but it's not much pleasure to cook out in the open with the snow blowing 40 ways and the thermometer ranging from 7 to 19 below. Officers and men alike were mighty glad when our outfit and company was aboard the train ready to move south Ordinarily its only 12 hours ride but several times the train was completely snowbound and it took us over 36 hours to make the trip.

Since our return home we have been feeding the boys pretty good grub. Yesterday for Sunday dinner we gave them fresh hams roasted, mashed potatoes, brown gravy, dressing, apple sauce, creamed peas, cocoa, bread, butter, mince pie and brick ice cream Of course that was a little extra as we could not afford such feeds every day in the week. But the boys deserved it this time for after 26 days of outing along Lake Erie, old Camp Sherman was a very welcome sight A couple of our cooks froze their feet and ears They are now over at the base hospi[illegible] receiving treatment for same. I [illegible]k that they are now about rec[illegible]red.

Well, I [illegible]ceived my first experience at shoo[illegible], a high powered rifle I have a [illegible] of a gun too, it's the U. S model of 1917 Winchester, the [illegible] that all national army Infantry [illegible] will be given. Most all the [illegible] in the Infantry at Camp She[illegible] now have them.

Uncle John asked me if I hit the bull's eye 1 out of 5 times? Well, I didn't do quite that well every time They waved a good many red flags at me on several occasions I might have done better and then again I might have done worse Anyhow I didn't let the gun kick me loose One of the boys got several to th[illegible] and had loose [illegible] these guns do not kick if they are held right

Our company is under quarantine Someone in the adjoining barracks developed a case of diphtheria so they say, and now we are all under quarantine How long we will be under same I do not know

Uncle John has asked me how I liked the army by this time Well before I came down here I said to myself if I ever [illegible] I [illegible] I'll make the army my business same as I would go after [illegible] in some other line, only of course in this life we follow another channel in going after a living So I made up my mind I was going to like it and I haven't a single kick to register The sooner we get started in the big scrap the better All the boys are anxious to go to it and have it over with Also have the job done up good and brown.

Your Nephew,
WARD C KRIDER.

Should Conserve Health.

Health is the first requisite for a useful life. One may get along without it if there is money to pay for doctors, medicines and assistance—even then an unnecessary invalid is regarded as a cumberer of the earth. The ordinary person needs good health to play a satisfactory part in life and should do everything possible to secure and maintain it through all the years. With the best of intentions and care as well it is not always possible to evade illness but there is a better chance than if no attempt to avoid it had been made.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common garden Sage and Sulphur makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and youthful at once.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everyone uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this thru your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take a glass of Salts to flush our Kidneys—Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like a lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water, also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Strength of Spanish Fly.

Spanish fly is an insect much used in medicine as an irritant. It is gathered from the lilac bushes of southern Europe at night by shaking the branches, the collector's hands and face being protected by veils and gloves against the volatile acid discharge of the beetles. Then the insects are killed by immersion in hot vinegar. One one-hundredth (1-100) of a grain of Spanish fly placed on the lip rapidly causes a blister.—W. E. Aughinbaugh in Leslie's.

Perfect Agriculture.

Liebig, the great agricultural investigator, said: "I shall be happy if I succeed in attracting the attention of men of science to subjects which so well merit to engage their talents and energies. Perfect agriculture is the foundation of trade and industry; it is the foundation of the riches of states. But a rational system of agriculture cannot be formed without the application of scientific principles to soils, crops, actions of manures and nutrition."

SAYS HORRORS OF GERMAN WAR CAUSES DOWNFALL

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, DEC. 27.—Louis Yelletta, twenty-five, sat in a cell in the county jail here today and blamed the horrors of German warfare to the fact that he is charged with burglary.

Fourteen months in the German trenches dulled his conscience and he did not care any more, he said. He was charged with entering twenty homes in two weeks' time.

Yuiette, taken from a tramp steamer in 1914 and forced into the German army, escaped and later returned to his home here. He said he wanted to see Germany beaten. And, he declared, most of the men he fought with want the same thing.

HE NOW LAUGHS AT THE MEN AT THE TABLE.

This Man Was Always Ill at Ease While Waiting for His Dinner, Until—Pepsinco.

He would order a few little things and see visions of pains, nausea, misery and everything but enjoyment when they were put before him. Much or little never failed to leave the same miserable, disagreeable, sick headachy feeling. He had to eat and suffered the consequences.

He thought he was doomed to eternal chronic stomach trouble. He doctored, used many remedies, but no help.

A stranger, a good Samaritan, saw his condition; asked him the reason; offered him Pepsinco, and now a happy, smiling diner awaits the steaming dishes.

If your stomach bothers; if your food sours or disagrees with you; if pains follow a meal and sick headache is a rule, stop at the drug store and get a small package of Pepsinco now today. It is a positive remedy for bad stomachs.
